

DADS SHOE TREE

On the stretch to Placerville, there were boots on every post
Nailed all kinds of places, even along the coast
An idea came upon our pop, to do the very same
On a tree that dropped it's top, he decided to play this game

CHORUS:

He nailed his shoes upon it, He nailed mom's shoes too
He named this tree a "Shoe Tree" where his boots were stuck like glue

He'd-show-friends-round-the-property & take them on a walk
Chat about all types of trees - making small talk
He'd say that there are Digger pines Manzanita & Madrone
"Here's one called a Shoe Tree" When he'd say it, they would moan

He nailed his shoes upon it, He nailed mom's shoes too
He named this tree a "Shoe Tree" Where his boots were stuck like glue

The tree fell down upon the ground shoes were everywhere
Even along the horse trail, more-shoes-down-there.
Many on their walks would see, boots from miles around
Word about his Shoe Tree, created a stir downtown.

He nailed his shoes upon it, He nailed mom's shoes too
He named this tree a Shoe Tree, where his boots were stuck like glue

Saw there on a nature map, a detail that amazed
DADDY rubbed HIS eyes Because it had HIM really dazed
Sitting there next to the spot THAT MARKED the old horse trail
Was the famous Shoe Tree with a boot and a nail

He nailed his shoes upon it, He nailed mom's shoes too
He named this tree a Shoe Tree - Where his boots were stuck like glue
Where his boots were stuck like glue!

GLUE...
